"Has Shot His Bolt."

Hon. Geo. S. Rhea, Congressman from the Third District, who has been talking to a reporter of a Washington newspaper about the political situation in Kentucky, has this to say about the race for Governor:

"In my opinion Hon. William Goebel, who started out as the leading candidate, has shot his bolt and is practically beaten now. The Goebel boom is also on the verge of collapse. It is already dead. Hardin killed off Goebel, but in so doing did not do himself any material good. The candidacy of Col. W. J. Stone is in a very healthy condition and a large and influential element of the party is backing him.

"With all the complications of a three sided fight it is impossible to name the winner, for it may be that some outsider—Goodnight, Fryer, Ellis or ex-Governor Brown—will come off with the nomination. Whoever is nominated will win, for there is no shadow of doubt about a Democratic victory."

J. J. G. Watson, son of Rear Admiral Watson, was among the list of law students to graduate from Centre College, Danville, this year.

HOME CURE FOR BLOOD POISON.

Beware of the Doctors' Patchwork; You Can Cure Yourself at Home.

There is not the slightest doubt that the doctors do more harm than good in treating blood poisoning. This disease is a very serious one and many victims of this loathsome disease would be much better off to-day if they had never allowed themselves to be dosed on mercury and potash, the only remedies which the doctors ever give for blood poison.

The doctors are wholly unable to get rid of this vile poison, and only attempt to heal up the outward appearance of the disease—the sores and eruptions. This they do by driving the poison into the system, and endeavor to keep it shut in with their constant doses of potash and mercury. The mouth and throat and other delicate parts then break out into sores, and the fight is continued indefinitely, the drugs doing the system more damage than the disease itself.

Mr. H. L. Myers, 100 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J., says: "I had spent a hundred dollars with the doctors, when I realized that they could do me no good. I had large sores all over my body, and these soon broke out into running sores, and I endured all the suffering which this vile disease produces. I decided to try S. S. S. as a last resort, and was soon greatly improved. I followed closely your 'Directions for Self-Treatment,' and the large blotches on my chest began to grow paler and smaller, and before long disappeared entirely. I was soon cured perfectly and my skin has been as clear as glass ever since. I cured myself at home, after the doctors had failed completely."

It is valuable time thrown away to expect the doctors to cure Ointment Blood Poison, for the disease is beyond their skill. Swift's Specific.

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—acts in an entirely different way from potash and mercury—it forces the poison out of the system and gets rid of it entirely. Hence it cures the disease, while other remedies only shut the poison in where it lurks forever, constantly undermining the constitution. Our system of private postage free, most places a cure within the reach of all. We give all necessary medical advice, free of charge, and save the patient the embarrassment of publicity. ### FACTS AND OBSERVATIONS

On a Trip to Campton, Jackson and Other Towns.

Circuit Court was to convene at Campton, Wolfe county, on Monday, April 24. In behalf of the ADVOCATE Trimble left town on Saturday afternoon going to Torrent on the train. At 5:20 in a low top buggy he started for Campton ten miles distant. The road was mostly dry, but very rough, being a forcible reminder of what it had been. A lifeless snake in the road near Torrent, suggested thoughts of the enmity between man and the serpent and the conflict with sin. Golden streaks of light had begun playing hide and seek among the clouds; the maple trees were here and there refreshing oases on the brown mountainside; the bloom of apple trees told of coming fruitage; these partially atoned for the jerks and jolts incident to the trip.

The moon had begun her cooing, a sweet-voiced mocking bird in the oak tree and the deep-toned whippoorwill were the dullest notes playing to rest the day, when the driver reined his horse to question one, evidently a seeker for another land. As we often want Facts and Observations we began to question.

The stranger was near his two-horse wagon, which stood by the roadside, a small boy was carrying the horses. The tent had been spread, and a woman held a frying pan over the blaze, which ascended the stump on the opposite side of which she stood. The oldest daughter, aged nineteen, was transferring the feather bed to the tent, where weary limbs would find rest after the frugal meal. The baby, white-headed Rebekah, aged three years, busy in play and unmindful of the surroundings and hardships and probable perils of the long journey, stumbled and fell in the road. The other children were busy or quietly resting, no doubt wondering why the intruder was asking of their plans and purposes. A question or two elicited a deeper interest in this company.

The stranger, aged 47, a man of good expression, was John J. Kimberlin, of Nehemiah, Magoffin county, Ky. He with his wife and only 11 of his children, eight daughters and three sons, were enroute to Greenville, Hunt county, Texas; (the two oldest children, sons, live in Virginia). They are to make the entire trip in this wagon. They left Nehemiah on April 20, and expect to reach their destination in 40 days, at an estimated cost of $40 to $50. He and his 3 oldest daughters alternate in driving; as one drives the other 3 walk. He said he had only $75, and that if any accident befell him or his money gave out he would make some "shift" to get along. Said he had heard of the country, as his kinsman Emmitt G. Arce lived at Greenville. He was not pleased with the prospects and surroundings in Magoffin for raising his children and desired a better place. Having been asked, he answered that he and his wife had faith in the Christ and that he was trusting God for guidance and blessing, that he wanted to rear his children aright. He said that he did not have a Bible, but had a New Testament.

The stranger said that previous to his one year sojourn in Magoffin county, he had lived in Virginia for 23 years. The writer said that he was a son of Green Trimble, formerly of Hazel Green. Then the stranger said that his father, John W. Kimberlin, had once swapped horses with my father.

I told him that I was editor of the MT. STERLING ADVOCATE. He readily consented for me to report our interview. I told him a copy of the paper would await his arrival, and asked when he reaches Texas he write me a letter. This he promised to do. Our conversation had been pleasant and awakened serious thoughts about present blessings, his responsibilities and hopes, his trust for guidance, and that better land (not in Texas), where, after a few more journeys, we all may meet. Doubting that he could make the trip with the small amount, which I believed he had truthfully reported, I placed two silver dollars in his hand, and assured him that he and his little ones would be remembered, and expressed the hope that God would bless him. Gratefully he expressed his thanks for what was said and done and we said goodbye.

At 8:10 (Standard time) we stopped in front of the Combs Hotel in Campton and (twice called hello! The proprietor in garments whiter than men usually wear at this season, appeared at the door. He afterward explained that the "lodge" had met on the previous night and he had been up late. He and the household had retired. He proposed to have a warm supper prepared, but as the traveler objected, a cold lunch was served.

At 8 o'clock on Sunday morning I reached Hazel Green, desiring to spend the day with my sister, Mrs. J. T. Day, who for some weeks had been sick with appendicitis. She had gotten up on Saturday morning. While frail, she appeared much better than I expected to find her. Her daughter, Mrs. R. J. McElin, was sick, with indications of fever.

Eugene Adkinson, of Powell county, is very sick with consumption. He had been in town for some weeks.

The writer attended services in the morning at the Presbyterian church. He accepted the invitation of the pastor of the Christian church, Prof. Cord, to preach in the evening. Text, John 14:1-3.

We returned to Campton early Monday. The attendance was large, the day was disagreeable on account of rain. Immediately after instructions to the jury the court began the Commonwealth's docket, and during the day disposed of several small cases. In some counties, as in Montgomery, no cases are tried on the first day.

Morrow, of the Jackson Hustler, and the writer were the only newspaper men present.

J. B. White, of Irvine; T. C. Cope, C. T. Byrd, of Jackson; E. C. Myden, of Beattyville; G. W. Good, County Attorney of Morgan; Wallace McGuire, of West Liberty, and Thos. Johnson, of Lee county, were the visiting attorneys.

On Sunday announcement was made that the writer would preach at the Methodist church on Monday evening. The weather was disagreeable and the unusual happened—the men outnumbered the women. Owing to the absence of the organist, the singing was led by Circuit Clerk Vansant Mr. Robinson the merchant, two other gentlemen and the writer. The sermon was from Prov. 14:38—"Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

During our stay next Tuesday afternoon we were pleased to meet some of the aged men who were friends of my father many years ago.

Farm work appeared to be backward. There is a big demand for cattle. Calves are very high; a man told of a three-weeks calf for $15. Did not hear of much sale of horses and mules. Much attention is now being given to the sale of railroad ties and lumber in country between Torrent and Hazel Green and along the L. & E. railroad.

Accompanied by our brother, R. M. Trimble, we left Campton on Tuesday afternoon by way of Torrent for Jackson, where we spent the night with our friend, Judge J. Wise Higgins, proprietor of the Arlington.

Important to Stockmen.

A correspondent writes to the Danville Advocate as follows: "One of our neighbors, who has deboned over 1,000 cattle and lost only three, says the deboning should be done when the calves are ten days to two weeks old, by clipping the hair from around the horn close, then dampen with oil and burn with caustic potash. He has never known a slagle case to fail, and five cents worth will debone a dozen calves. If deboning is put off until the animal is one or two years old, the cost will be from one to three dollars per head, owing to the condition of the stock, and it sets them back in growth from one to two months, the shrinkage and cost for feeding during the time of curing making the cost. The best time of the year for deboning aged cattle is the last of October or first of November, and they should have no feed or water the day of deboning or be allowed to run to hay or straw stacks afterward."

I. O. O. F. Anniversary. Wednesday was the eightieth anniversary of Odd Fellowship, and Hickman Lodge, No. 72, held an open session at the lodge room, Rev. G. H. Means made a most admirable and practical address, and R. R. Perry followed with some amusing experiences with fellows old and otherwise.—Winchester Democrat.

Coughed 25 Years. I suffered for 25 years with a cough, and spent hundreds of dollars with doctors for medicine to no avail until I used Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey. This remedy makes weak lungs strong. It has saved my life.—J. R. Rosell, Grantburg, Ill.

A Yearling Sells For $3,000. Williams & Bradford, of Adelbert Stud, near Hopkinsville, have sold to W. P. Norton, part owner of May Hempstead, a yearling colt by Imported Fisher, out of Meda, for $3,000. The colt is a full brother to Sunny Slope.

CONVICT PAROLE LAW

Decided Unconstitutional by Judge Cantrell.

Judge Cantrell rendered a decision in the State Circuit Court at Frankfort holding the convict parole law unconstitutional. The parole law was passed in 1884, authorizing the State Board of Prison Commissioners to parole convicts regarded by them as deserving, to be forfeited and prisoner returned in case of breach of parole.

$25,000.00 Given Away.

In the past year Dr. R. V. Pierce has given away copies of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, at an expense to him of $25,000 exclusive of postage. This standard book on medicine and hygiene, contains 1008 pages and more than 700 illustrations. It treats of the greatest and gravest problems of human life in simple English, from a common sense point of view. It answers those questions of sex which linger unspoken upon the lips of youth and maidens. It is essentially a family book and its advice in a moment of sudden illness or accident may be the means of saving a valuable life. This great work is sent absolutely free on receipt of stamps to defray the cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper binding, or 31 stamps for cloth covers. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Stith's Sale.

W. H. Fletcher, auctioneer, reports the following from Mrs. Stith's sale at her home near Aaron's Run on last Wednesday:

Horses brought from $35 to $50. One pair work mules $125. Milch cows from $20 to $40.50. One 800-pound steer sold for $37.50. One yearling heifer $26. Two yearling steers $18 each. Six shoats sold for $21—about 31 cents.

Sow and six pigs $13. Corn in crib, $2 per barrel. Corn in field, 60 cents per shock. Household and kitchen furniture brought good prices.

No Excuse For Idleness.

There is work now of some kind for all who want it, in town and country. Between plowing and planting, and painting and whitewashing, and in repairing and cleaning away rubbish, there is no need for anybody to be idle at the present time. The loafer, who can't afford to be idle, will not receive much sympathy.—Georgetown Times.

This will apply very well to some of the loafers in this city.

Boy Shipped By Express.

Howell, aged 7, son of Rev. Robert Dickson, a missionary to Brazil, arrived at Mayville on last Tuesday to visit relatives. He came to New York accompanied by a friend of his father. From there he was sent by express to Mayville. The little fellow enjoyed the trip in the express car and says he wants to return that way.

It is not the man who yells the loudest for his party who is the most true to its principles, neither is it always the man who shouts the loudest at a revival who is the best Christian.—Gleaner's Graphic.

Any State ticket nominated by the Kentucky Democracy will win in November; this makes it all the more important that the best men be selected for the several places.—George's Town Times.

Letters from all over the State indicate that Capt. Stone is growing in popularity. It is asserted by some that he will be nominated on the first ballot.—Princeton Banner.

If State issues are not to be discussed in a State campaign, where shall they be discussed?—Madisonville Mail.

Dr. Robert Ryland, of Lexington, a Baptist preacher, aged 94 years, is dead.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.
FOR LEGISLATURE—
I. N. GREENE,
OF Montgomery County.
FOR RAILROAD COMMISSIONER, 2nd District—
COL. A. W. HAMILTON,
OF Montgomery County

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
We are authorized to announce John R. Chenault, of Madison county, as candidate for State Auditor, subject to the action of the Democratic party.
We are authorized to announce Mr. Green R. Keller, of Nicholas county, as a candidate for Secretary of State, subject to the action of the Democratic party.
We are authorized to announce M. A. Cassidy, of the county of Fayette, a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

I am a candidate for re-election as Railroad Commissioner from the Third Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Republican party. I base my claims upon life-long adherence to the principles of my party; loyalty to all its nominees; years of earnest effort for its success, and faithful and conscientious performance of my official duties.
Respectfully,
JOHN C. WOOD.

STONE AND HARDIN.

Some men, Democrats at that, are telling it around that Capt. W. J. Stone is not sound on the money question; that he voted while in Congress for a gold bond issue.

These Democrats don't know what they are talking about. This news—good to Capt. Stone's opponents—started with the Hon. P. Wat Hardin at Shelbyville. Wat should have known better than to have made this statement so foreign to the truth. He misled the people who heard and more who read that celebrated speech. It is even reported that he read from the Congressional Record, and then to his audience he turned Joaze as much wind as did that Trojan horse, and exultantly invited any one who doubted him to come and believe his own eyes. Now, it may have been that Wat did not know better; he can't know everything, yet some people have to be born again in order to possess much knowledge. For instance Gen. Hardin was completely turned down four years ago and don't know that the same circumstances which led to his defeat then are alive to-day, and that it is not for the interest of the party to renominate him.

The fact is Capt. Stone at no time when this bill referred to by Gen. Hardin, or any other kindred bill was put on its final passage, voted for it.

At some time during the contest he may have voted for the measure. Why, that it should become a law? No! He knew that a bill must be on its final passage, and that it was not so with that bill at that time, and his motive was to mislead the common enemy. It is like this: A convention is in session, Mr. Stone is instructed by his county how to vote, but pending the balloting he votes for others than the one for whom he is pledged, hoping by this method to gain a point favorable to his candidate, or like combatting armies, the officers in charge make it appear that the strength of the line is the center and to this point the enemy concentrates its force, but to find a flank movement has been made, that the deadly fire is coming from the right or left and it is too late to successfully resist. Mr. Hardin should have known that this was the condition under which that vote was cast and that on the final passage of the bill Mr. Stone voted against the measure, but since he did not it would be justice to make an open confession and correction as publicly and far-reaching as he did the charge. To do this is manly, to refuse to do so is anything else.

No man has ever heard of Senator Goebel going over the country making such a charge for the reason he new better. Again, suppose the charge made by Mr. Hardin was true, is not Mr. Stone a consistent Democrat now? Did he not prove loyal to the Democratic party when he went over the country on crutches as an exponent to the Chicago platform and pressing the claims of Mr. Bryan for the Presidency? Even admitting that Mr. Stone was wrong on the money question at one time it proves nothing now.

Capt. Stone's Democracy needs no pillars to support it. He is a Democrat on the money question, on the trust question, and on monopolies.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

On last Wednesday the Democratic Railroad convention of the third district met in Winchester. There was a good representation. Every body came as it were with a determination to talk the same way and so they did. They were unanimous for a chairman and secretary, endorsed the Chicago platform and Hon. J. W. Bryan, nominated Col. A. W. Hamilton for Railroad commissioner, adjourned and the delegates returned to their respective homes. It was harmony that possessed the convention and when we enter the fight for the November election it will be as one man. Col. Hamilton is a candidate with a Republican majority against him, but when the November election is over it will be observed that the majority is on the other side of the page. Col. Hamilton has spent his money for Democracy and the party know it. He has given of his time and the party will not forget him.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

The Republican convention of the Third Railroad District convenes in Richmond to-day. Our townsmen, John C. Wood, goes into the convention the strongest in the fight, but hardly enough to win on the first ballot. Doubtless there will be a combination of all the National administration to defeat Mr. Wood, but from the second pledged to Mr. Wood, and from the uninstructed vote he hopes to be able to win. If it is the desire of the party to present their very best man, one who will not shrink from duty, Mr. Wood will be the nominee. If a Republican is to have this office we know of no one who would please the Democrats better, for truly he is a good man.

The "Passion Play" failed to attract the people of Mt. Sterling. So far as we are concerned, we congratulate them. We hear the company received no encouragement at Paris. If these are fair samples of the patronage bestowed the play will soon be withdrawn.

During the past week we were introduced to Gus G. Coulter, of Mayfield, Ky., who was in our city. He seeks the Democratic nomination for Auditor. He reports a strong following in west and southwest Kentucky, and while he modestly recognized that he was approaching Mr. J. B. Chenault's territory, he would not object to having his name favorably considered.

H. V. McChesney, of Livingston county, candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction, was in our city last week in behalf of his candidacy. He is a capital man, suited for the position he asks. He is editor of the Southland Democrat.

Democratic Primary in Bath.

At the Democratic primary in Bath county on Saturday a light vote was polled. In the Judge's race J. A. Dougherty defeated L. S. Rogers by 79 votes, with D. S. Trumbo third. For School Superintendent, W. P. Perry defeated J. D. Myers by about 250. B. A. Shroat, for Surveyor, had no opposition.

GET READY, we have supplied the majority of farmers with their needs in farming implements and the few left need to hurry.

ED MITCHELL.

Geo. W. Moore's advertisement appears in this issue. From the people who know Mr. Moore as a contractor and builder and for anyone for whom he has done work, he can get a statement of fairness and competency. Mr. Moore is one of our best and most reliable men.

John W. Withrow and Ed Gibbons have bought the saloon business of John Gibbons on South Maysville street. They took possession yesterday.

You are requested to call at B. F. Settles' carriage shop and see those Columbus Buggy Co.'s second-hand bargains.

Ed Mitchell is doing the hardware business in Mt. Sterling because he keeps the stock. See his list of choice implements.

It is said that the proposed bicycle trust will not be consummated. One firm which was to have been sold for $500,000 withdrew.

Now that fine weather is assured by your carriages and buggies from B. F. Settles.

A handsome buggy, the latest wheel conveyance, and the very best in material and workmanship for the least money at Ed Mitchell's.

DEFENDING THE NATION.

Catastrophe to our country. Lung troubles and other diseases of the mucous membrane take hold of our people and fatal results follow. I have tried every remedy, but I cannot exist where the membranes are clean and healthy.

Mrs. Lora Davis, Fayetteville, Tenn., tells in her letter how Dr. Hartman's great catarrh remedy, Per-na, cured her of the gripe and serious lung complication. She says:

"I was afflicted with a disease commonly known as gripe, two years ago; the doctors said I had consumption. I got one bottle of Per-na and the second night my cough stopped. I took several bottles, and I will say that I believe I would be a dead woman now if it had not been for Per-na."

Mary M. Pruitt, Palmyra, Mo., says: Per-na Medicine Co., Columbus, O.

"I had a gripe for three successive years; it seemed to get a tighter hold on me each year. It seemed I was in the jaws of death. What had helped me before would not do me any good. I saw an advertisement of Per-na, and procured two bottles and it cured me. I have not felt any symptom since. I may use this in any way you please."

Moved to the Country.

Mr. Henry Scott and wife, who have been conducting a boarding house on Maxwell street for two months past, moved on yesterday to the home of their son John Scott, near Peeled Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Scott endeavored themselves to many of our people during their short residence here who with many thanks give them up. Andrew Minahan and wife, who resided with them are on a visit to relatives in Carlisle. They will return to this city some time in the near future.

License Granted.

On Saturday Earl Seuff, of this city, was examined by Chief Justice J. H. Hazelrigg and Judge J. P. Hobson, at Frankfort, and license was granted to him to practice in all courts in the Commonwealth. By close application he has shown himself worthy of this recognition, and we wish for him a long life of usefulness, distinction and success.

Insurance Pays.

The largest salary received by any person in the United States is paid to Mr. Hyde, the President of the Equitable Life Insurance Company—$100,000 a year. He owns the controlling interest in the company, and simply takes the money out of one pocket and puts it into another.

Heavy Damages.

On Saturday a verdict was given against the L. & N. railroad for $10,000 in favor of James Savage, a switchman, who lost his fingers and thumb on right hand. The accident occurred while cars were being coupled.

J. Howard Wilson, who has been night storekeeper at a distillery in Frankfort, has been relieved from duty for a time because of the closing down of the plant. He hopes soon to have another appointment.

Patriotic Southerners at Chickamauga.

The Kentucky monument at Chickamauga will be dedicated to-morrow.

At Big Stone Gap there has been a great revival in the coke business and all business is said to be on a boom. Our investors there will hope that fortune will smile on them.

Taylor Young sold some hogs to Omar Wilson at $3.25.

John Hall, of Flat Creek, sold a mule to Andy English for $65.

W. D. Darnell, of Bath county, sold Lawrence Passett a suckling calf for $18.

Enoch Ralls, near Sharpsburg, sold a two-year-old jack to Joe Jones, of Winchester, for $235.

Mrs. Sallie Hadden, of Kiddville, has rented about 300 acres of grass land at $2 and $5.50 per acre.

Joe Turley purchased at Owingsville of E. H. Goodpastor 24 hogs, of H. H. Ewing 45 and A. W. Bascam $, all at $3.40 per cwt.

Joe Turley shipped from Ewington to Richmond and Washington about 700 hogs, costing from $3.40 to $3.50.

A Gallatin county farmer last year experimented with two acres of horse-radish and sold the crop for $165.40 in the Cincinnati market. He says he will double the amount this year. It requires very little cultivation and is a profitable crop to raise.

The government sale of mules at Chickamauga Park has been a remarkable success. Something over 300 mules sold, netting in the neighborhood of $30,000.

You Can't Dodge Them

Did you ever try to dodge the rain-drops? Did not succeed very well, did you? It's just as useless to try to escape from the germs of consumption. You can't do it. They are about us on every hand and we are constantly taking them into our lungs.

Then why don't we all have this disease? Simply because these germs cannot gain a foothold in a strong throat and lungs. It's when these are weak that the germs master.

The body must be well supplied with fat. The danger comes when the blood is poor and the body is thin. If your constitution does not yield, and your throat and lungs feel raw and sore, you should not delay another day. Take of Cod-Liver Oil with Hypophosphates at once. It will heal the inflamed membranes and greatly strengthen them as well. The digestion becomes stronger, the appetite better and the weight increases. The whole body becomes well fortified and the germs of consumption cannot gain a foothold.

It's this nourishing, sustaining and strengthening power of SCOTT'S EMULSION that has made it of such value in all wasting and exhausting diseases.

C. W. E. M. Convention.

The Eighth District Convention of the C. W. E. M. held its annual session in the Christian Church, Mt. Sterling, Ky., April 28, 1899.

The meeting was called to order promptly at 10 o'clock by Mrs. W. S. Keene, who was permanent Chairman in the absence of the District Manager, Mrs. D. B. Shawhan.

The devotional exercises were opened by song: "Heater My God to Thee." Mrs. Wornall, reading the scripture lesson from John 15th, and Bro. Tindler offering prayer and a song by the congregation.

Mrs. Yancey then addressed the convention in her usual stirring style upon the importance of the District work; closing with an earnest appeal to the sisterhood for deeper consecration and more vigorous opposition to the deceptions of the Lords-day and other social evils now so prevalent.

Miss Burroughs spoke a few appropriate and beautiful words of welcome, which were responded to most happily by Mrs. Wornall in behalf of the delegates.

The Chair then appointed Mrs. K. W. Williams, of Cynthiana, Secretary of the meeting, and called for the counting of the delegates, resulting as follows:

Harrison county, 1 delegate; Bourbon county, 1 delegate; Nicholas county, 9 delegates; Clark county, 9 delegates; Montgomery county, 22 delegates; Bath county, none. Total 42.

The Chair then called for the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting, which were adopted.

The reports of County Managers were then called for and responded to as follows:

for the year: District Manager, Mrs. Shawhan. County Managers: Harrison, Mrs. Withers; Bourbon, Mrs. Wornall; Clark, Mrs. VanMeter; Nicholas, Mrs. Stout; Montgomery, Mrs. S. W. Gail-cath; Bath, Mrs. Richard.

Time and place: Last Friday in April, 1900, Cynthiana, Ky. The Committee on Obituaries reported:

In all our gatherings here there are vacant places as we recall the workers. Some are absent from the body, but present with the Lord. Since our last meeting two of our sisters have answered to the roll call from above. Sister Anderson, of Cynthiana auxiliary, a quiet but earnest worker, has passed to her reward. Mt. Sterling has suffered from the loss of one ever faithful, Mrs. Emily Stoffer. May others take up the thread that has fallen from their hands and finish the weaving of deeds of love. May we learn from these still voices and vacant places that soon our work will be ended and we must work while it is day.

We remember also that in the last few days a deep dark shadow has come into the home and church of one of our neighbors. We refer to the death of J. S. Kendrick, of Danville.

During this session prayers were offered by Rev. Clark, Tindler and Trimble.

After a series of sentence prayers, followed by Scripture quotations, the audience sang "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and Bro. H. D. Clark pronounced the benediction.

And eight others in 2:30 and fifteen more better than 2:30. He is also the grand sire of two better than 2:30.

Clay, sired by Electioneer, the greatest sire that ever lived. Clay's 1st dam is Maid of Clay, dam of Carrie C, 4 years, 2:24; Clay, 4479, stallion, record 2:25; trial 2:16; Clay, gelding, 2 yrs., trial 2:18; Capt. Smith 2:29, trial 2:21, by Harry Clay, are of the dam of Geo. Wilkes, sire of the dam of Clay, and founder of the Clay family; 2d dam by Day's Messenger, 3rd dam by Balface Consul.

In CLAY you have a union of the same elements that produced the great Geo. Wilkes, but in a concentrated form, combining the blood of Green Mountain Maid, dam of nine in 2:30 list, and Maid of Clay, dam of four in the list. Maid of Clay takes very high mark as a producer of speed. Out of six foals (one died at yearling) she has four out of five on the list.

R. S. Strader, who paid Geo. Leland Stanford $15,000 for Clay, says that he never saw anything by Clay with a split, crack, spavin or any kind of a growthy substance.

Slavery, When?

Capital is as much dependent upon labor as labor is upon capital. Neither can exist and prosper without harmonious co-operation of the other; yet a prominent railroad vice-president, in commenting on the facts brought out in the case said: "The people who own this country propose to run it." On being questioned more closely as to his meaning, he declared, "I mean those who own the property." This is a bold and frank declaration of the purpose of the monopolies, and its truth is proved by their daily actions. Absolute subjection and slavery of the masses is what they intend to bring about, and in the accomplishment of their purpose they will hesitate at no crime, let it be ever so appalling. These combinations have taken possession of the Republican party, and are boldly using it for their base ends. They are also preparing for any emergency in the way of open resistance by the people, in the organization of an imperial army. Those who sleep in fancied security over this smoldering volcano, and blindly vote their party ticket regardless of the debased issue to which it is being put, may wake up some morning early to find themselves and their children enslaved, or in the throes of a red revolution that will shake society from center to circumference. Those who believe in liberty for the people must combine against the encroachments of the classes, or they will go down beneath the latter's unremitting encroachments.

NOVEL NAVAL ADVICE.

French Expert Recommends Slow Battleships of Great Power.

I send you a few points from a conversation with M. Normand, the noted constructor of war vessels, especially torpedo boats, and the French government, of which class he has several on hand. M. Augustin Normand remarked that undoubtedly France was inferior to Great Britain in number of warships, but that it was useless to attempt to do so, because the result of a modern naval war. It could, however, be accepted as a principle, both as to naval fighting and warfare on land, that different tactics must be adopted by the weaker from those employed by the stronger power. For the weaker side to initiate the methods of the stronger must lead to disaster. To continue to compete with England on the same lines, but with less money to spend for naval armaments, France, having a large army, would lead to her being reduced to a position of importance on the water.

The experienced constructor recommends, in order to insure a chance of success, the employment of a different type of vessels, and the use of dissimilar weapons from those adopted by the adversary. It is of no use for France to build one ship when England is building three, copying at the same time British types of vessels. The only thing in which to invest the navy of Albion is in its numbers. He recommends a general reduction in the speed of French vessels in order to increase their numbers, with also at the same time an increase in their defensive power. A lesser fleet of very rapid vessels would be fatal; they would be of no use against the enemy's merchant ships, which would sail under a neutral flag. They could only use their speed to escape from superior numbers.

So much is this question to the order of M. Normand to build two armored seagoing torpedo boats, which are now being constructed in his yards, in addition to others in the Mediterranean arsenals. The business of battleships is to fight under the most favorable conditions, therefore number and strength are for them more important than speed. Cruisers are for these reasons not so useful as flotillas of torpedo boats, because cruisers cannot fight battleships nor capture merchant steamers under another flag. The speed of torpedo vessels, as well as of the vessels that escort them, should be great, and of course the scouts. All the other fighting ships should possess a comparatively low rate of speed.

These are the views of a French expert, given for the benefit of his countrymen.—Pall Mall Gazette.

THE HUNGER CURE.

American People Eat Too Much and Too Often.

Two articles in the Cosmopolitan have for their moral that hunger at times may be a very valuable therapeutic agent. One of these articles, by Mark Twain, sets forth in the author's fanciful and whimsical fashion, while the other, by Dr. W. J. Youmans, puts it in scientific terms. Probably the truth is that these articles inculcate is one that needs to be impressed on Americans generally. The Medical Times and Register has the following to say on the subject:

"The moral of both articles, briefly stated, is that we eat too much, and at times when there is no disposition upon the part of the alimentary organs to digest food. It is better, instead of eating food at stated periods, to wait until the craving of the stomach demands food, no matter how long that may be, presupposing, of course, that the digestive organs are in a physiological condition. From a disease standpoint the stomach may be in such a low, nervous condition that the lack of nutritional tone may be intensified to such a degree as to make no demands for food.

"There is much to be said in favor of the facts contained in both articles, for it cannot be questioned that we eat entirely too much for the proper preservation of the natural force of our systems. We are constantly accumulating more than we make use of, and despite the fact that we have a surplus of tissue we are in a state of physiological bankruptcy.

"The general conclusions to be derived from both articles are that Americans as a rule consume an excessive amount of food, the excess being most pronounced in the line of meats and sweets."

Women Should Know It.

Many women suffer untold agony and misery because the nature of their disease is not correctly understood. They have been led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for the many ills that beset womanhood.

Neuralgia, nervousness, headache, puffiness and dark circles under the eyes, rheumatism, a dragging pain or a dull ache in the back, weakness or bearing-down sensation, profuse or scanty supply of urine with strong odor, frequent desire to pass it with scalding or burning sensation, sediment in it after standing in bottle or common glass for twenty-four hours, are signs of kidney and bladder trouble.

The above symptoms are often attributed by the patient herself or by her physician to female weakness or womb trouble. Hence so many fail to obtain relief, because they are treating, not the disease itself, but a reflection of the primary cause, which is kidney trouble.

In fact, women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is the great discovery of the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is easy to get at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar.

To prove its wonderful merits you may have a sample bottle and book telling all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail. Kindly mention The Mt. Sterling Advocate and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Modern Railway Equipment.

The equipment of the modern railway service is growing better every day. The highest point of excellence is reached in the "Pacific Coast Limited," a new train now operated between St. Louis and Los Angeles and San Francisco via the "True Southern Route."

Leaves St. Louis every Tuesday and Saturday via the Iron Mountain Route, and makes the run to Los Angeles in two days and a half.

The equipment of this incomparable train consists of a composite car, with barber shop, bath room, buffet and observation, smoking and library compartment, ladies' private compartment and an observation parlor, two or more Pullman ten-section double drawing room sleeping cars, and in addition to this equipment a superb dining car, in which meals and service are of the very best, and where the traveler can regulate his expenses by his inclination, as all meals are served à la carte.

FIVE HOURS' PIANO PRACTICE.

The Famous Leschetzky Says That Should Be the Maximum.

As to the number of hours that should be spent in daily practice, Leschetzky, the famous Vienna teacher, and the instructor of Paderewski, says it depends very much upon the pupil's power of concentrating his mind upon what his fingers are doing—five hours he would call a maximum, and less is better. "Don't practice too many hours," he is always saying, "but use your brain more while you are practicing. Learn to listen to what you are playing—to listen! How few there are who know how to listen!" And then, to illustrate his meaning, he will strike two notes in succession, say G and D, and show what changes and shadings of meaning may be effected by varying the time and tone quality. A little strengthening here, a holding back there, the quickening of a pulse, the change of an accent—these make all the difference between soul and clay, between art and artifice, but it takes a listening brain to feel them. Perhaps—and indeed it is so regarded—this habit is one of the most precious of the many really precious things that Leschetzky develops in his pupils.

And then there is the habit he is always counseling of practicing away from the piano, not practicing with the hands, but with the mind, by thinking out a piece, note by note, passage by passage, until a distinct and original idea of it has been obtained. This work may be done, he says, at almost any time, once the habit is formed, and may be done with or without notes.—Cleveland Moffett, in Ladies' Home Journal.

A Peculiar Hall.

The St. Petersburg Academy of Science was interested recently by a note from Prof. Karapinsky, describing some peculiar hall which fell in Russian Poland. The grains were pear-shaped and contained black granules. Chemical analysis showed that they consisted of iron, nickel and cobalt, and this satisfied Prof. Karapinsky that they were of cosmic origin. The iron was magnetic. The grains, probably the debris of meteors that had been burned in the upper air, would have escaped detection had they not been inclosed in the granular hall pellets, where the contrast of color quickly called attention to them.

Primitive Farming.

Twenty years ago the farmers of Montgomery and Blount counties practiced what was known as primitive farming—that is, bred and raised horses, mules, cattle, sheep and hogs—a few of each—and raised enough corn, hay and oats to feed them through, and kept enough land in grass to graze them the rest of the year. Then the lands were rich, the farmers prosperous and happy, and farming was a pleasure and not a drudgery, as has been the case with the majority of farmers in both counties. Under the system of raising corn and tobacco and hauling it from the farm, that is, taking all and giving none, the farmer and his farm has from year to year become poorer and poorer.

I have recently driven through both counties and see a change. People are again turning their attention to raising of good stock of all sorts; in other words, they are going back to legitimate farming. When this is done by the rank and file you will again see a prosperous, fertile and happy country.

Cattle are high, and it will take ten years to make good the shortage. Good horses are higher than they have been for years and are harder to find, and are going to be higher and scarcer still, but the demand is for big, fine looking horses.

GREENBACKS or Government Money.
At close of our Civil War in 1865, there appeared in the London Times the following:
"If that mischievous financial policy which had its origin in the North American Republic during the late Civil War in that country, should become indurated down to a fixture, then that government will furnish its money without cost. It will have all the money that is necessary to carry on its trade and commerce. It will become prosperous beyond precedent in the history of civilized nations of the world. The brain and wealth of all countries will go to North America. THAT GOVERNMENT MUST BE DESTROYED OR IT WILL DESTROY EVERY MONARCHY ON THIS GLOBE."
The famous Hazard circular, to capitalists in New York, and the Buell Bank circular to United States Bankers, both emanating from London, and the fabulous corruption fund raised in England and Germany, estimated at $1,500,000, were the agents that secured the closing of our mints against silver.

The "walk into my parlor" policy of England, during and since the Spanish War, is the latest evidence of English Diplomacy in shaping the destiny of the United States Government.
Notwithstanding the famine price of wheat, the Spanish War, and fabulous expenditures of money by our government during the past year, gold has increased in value eleven per cent. and all other values decreased in the same proportion.
For a thorough understanding of the money question, or silver issue, the Cincinnati Enquirer has uniformly given evidence of its ability to teach, explain and produce all facts and truth. It is a paper that ought and can be read by all classes with pleasure and profit.

THE FOREST MEETING ENDS.

The most unique protracted meeting in the history of Mt. Sterling closed Sunday night at the Christian church, with forty-eight additions to the congregation. All the sermons during the three weeks continuance were preached by Rev. W. M. Forrest, of Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Mr. Forrest is a young man of commanding presence and a very striking personality. He carries on his thoughtful face the mark of the student and the attractive radiance of a chastened spirit uplifted by an unwavering faith and calm consciousness of power to discharge the solemn duties of his high office. The clearness, force and elegance of his style, the orderly precision of his thought, the lucid simplicity of his invincible logic, combined with a voice opulent in all the elements that nature and art contribute to constitute a speaker.

a master of assemblies—this rare combination of excellences makes it an unceasing delight to surrender the mind to his persuasive speech. He moves uniformly on a high plane of dignity and solemn earnestness without a hint of the tricks of the professional evangelist or a suggestion of the frivolous to the souls that wait gladly on his inspiring words.

The attendance continued large and intensely attentive to the last moment. The sobriety and calm dignity of the speaker threw a spell over the congregation to the remotest corners of the floor and gallery. A restful calm pervaded this wonderful meeting unbroken for a moment by undue excitement or disturbing incident. Those who came forward in those quiet hours to profess their faith and join the ranks of the redeemed, evidently came to stay.

Who can measure such a man with such a message? A generation will hold him in precious memory, and we shall all welcome his return with a cordiality that ought to make him glad.

DEATHS.

HAZELRIGG.

R. H. Hazelrigg, an aged and prominent citizen, of Bethel, Bath county, died on Sunday, April 23d and was buried at Sharpsburg.

GARRARD.

Mrs. Anderson Garrard, aged 73 years, died at her home, near Wyoming. Her husband died about four years ago.

STEVENSON.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson died on Sunday morning at their home in Mattie Lee. The little one was only two weeks old.

MARSHALL.

During the past week the father of Robert Marshall, of this county, died at the home of his daughter in the South.

FRATEMAN.

Miss Nannie Frateman, aged about 22 years, died of consumption at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bradbury, near Bethel, Bath county, on Sunday morning. The many friends of Miss Frateman in this city will read this sad intelligence with deep regret. Her remains were laid to rest in the Owingville cemetery.

MAXEY.

At his home at Stepstone, on Friday, April 21, 1899, Henry L. Maxey died of paralysis, and was buried at Owingville on Sunday. He was born April 1, 1827, and had lived at Stepstone since 1881.

He was paralyzed April 2, 1897. Since October, 1897, he has been unable to walk and had been confined to his bed for about four months.

He was a member of the Christian church and was an excellent citizen. His wife died September 10, 1893. He leaves five children. His son Tibbs will graduate at the College of the Bible in June.

KENDRICK.

Rev. J. S. Kendrick, aged 46 years, pastor of the Christian church at Danville, Ky., died at his home on Tuesday morning, April 25, 1899, of Bright's disease.

Eight years ago he accepted the pastorate of that congregation, going from Winchester, where he preached for a few years.

He was well known and very popular among his brethren. He was an enthusiastic worker and an advocate of the various religious enterprises. He will be greatly missed from the conventions of his brethren. Socially he was animated and interesting. He leaves a wife, formerly Miss Alice Woolley, and two children—a son aged 17 and a babe.

MOBERLY.

Died on Friday, the 28th ultimo, Mrs. Nancy Moberly, of Richmond, Ky., aged 80 years. Mrs. Moberly was relict of Dr. T. S. Moberly and mother of the late Col. Thomas S. Moberly and aunt of Mrs. J. W. Hedden and Miss Frankie Hampton, of this city. She died from effects of cancer after seven years of suffering. Mrs. Moberly was a member of one of the oldest families of Madison county; had been a member of the Christian Church for many years and was truly an exemplary woman. Wherever she dwelt there the world was made better.

Of her immediate family she leaves a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lila Moberly and two grandchildren, Neville Moberly, a business man of Richmond and Miss Geneva, a bright, sweet girl just entering womanhood. Mrs. Moberly's funeral was at the home and her remains laid to rest in Richmond's beautiful home of the dead by the side of her loved and lost with whom she now rests in the spirit world.

C. H. Peury, Ed Mitchell, H. R. French, G. E. Coleman, G. L. Kirkpatrick and Dr. Wm. VanAntwerp have returned from the Cumberland. Right foot tide.

The first Tennessee strawberries of the season will be served at the "Poverty Partis" Friday night, the 5th, at the Masonic Temple.

MARRIAGES.

BLOUNT-WHITE.

On last Wednesday, at St. Joseph church in Winchester, John Samuel Blount and Miss Nora White were married. The bridal party took a trip to Southern cities.

PARISH-GILBERT.

At Winchester on Wednesday of last week, Mr. Charles W. Parrish and Miss Mattie Gilbert were married at the home of the bride's father, Rev. J. J. Gilbert. The groom is a member of the grocery firm of J. W. Parrish & Son.

CHAMBERS-CLUKE.

The Christian Church in this city was thronged at 6:30 o'clock on Thursday morning, April 27, 1899, to witness the marriage of one of our city's most popular daughters, Miss Keturah Cluke to B. L. Chambers, of Henderson, Ky. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. D. Clark. The church was artistically decorated with flowers and pot plants, white and green prevailing. The bride dressed in a blue cloth traveling suit, was very attractive. We have been acquainted with her for several years and regret to lose one so chery in disposition, social, entertaining, and worthy of admiration for her many excellencies.

We are not acquainted with the groom, but congratulate him on having won the love of Miss Cluke. He is a widower and has two children, one of whom is grown.

The many friends of the bride follow her with their best wishes and will always be glad to welcome her to our midst.

GRIFFITH-GRIFFITH.

Mrs. Stella Griffith, of Virginia, who visited her sister, Mrs. J. H. Stephenson, here last winter, was married in Baltimore, Md., to Dr. George Griffith, a prominent physician.

GAY-WOODFORD.

At the Christian church in this city, on Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, April 26, 1899, Mr. W. W. Gay, of Clark, and Miss Margaret Woodford, of this city, were united in marriage. The ceremony was pronounced by Rev. H. D. Clark in his own impressive style. Miss Anna Samuels presided at the organ.

The ushers were Messrs. J. C. Reid and N. R. Bright, E. R. Prewitt and Prewitt Young. The attendants were Messrs. Mary Gay, of Clark, and Eliza Harris of this city, and Messrs. Jake Etil and Nelson Gay.

The bride was attended by her maid of honor, Miss Elizabeth Spears, of Paris; the groom by his brother, David Gay.

The bride and groom are representatives of two of the prominent families in this and Clark county. The bride is attractive cultured and popular, is a member of the Christian church, and is worthy of the one whom she has chosen.

The bride's dress was white organdy trimmed in lace; her hat was white and green. She carried white roses.

The bridesmaids wore white organdy with lace, white hats, and carried pink roses. The groom and attendants and ushers wore the usual black. Immediately after the ceremony the party drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Woodford, parents of the bride, where an informal reception was held; after this they drove to the groom's home in Clark.

We wish them success and happiness.
